ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS

● Organisational skills

Leadership: I have worked as a team coordinator/supervisor, leading a small translation group. Sense of organization: for the past 8 years I have worked both as a part-time and full-time freelance professional translator, which implies the ability of self-organisation, from carrying out translation projects to ancillary activities, including accounting, invoicing, planning. Project or Team management: besides my past experience as Italian supervisor, I currently coordinate groups of freelance professionals in case of multilingual translation projects.

COMMUNICATION AND INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

● Communication and interpersonal skills

Team spirit: I have worked in different professional environments organised in team structures, from alphabetisation teams (designing and supplying Italian language classes to students), up to professional teams, coordinating translation projects, and sports teams (soccer and basketball). - Mediating skills: I have always played border-like and instrumental roles (students-teachers border during alphabetisation programmes; translators and team-mates-executives reporting team work, problems and goals). - Intercultural skills: I have worked and lived in diverse intercultural contexts, both at a local level (teaching Italian to foreign group students) and at an international level, with various experiences abroad (volunteer teacher in Ecuador, teacher in Saudi Arabia, translator in the Dominican Republic and Costa Rica).

OTHER SKILLS

● Other skills

I enjoy all kind of sports, in particular basketball, football and running. I love travelling and broaden my perspectives. I have lived in Spain, Ecuador, Saudi Arabia, Dominican Republic, Costa Rica.
